Funded through the Preschool Development Grant, the Equity Learning Exchange will focus on using an equity lens to explore the following issues:

- HISTORICAL FOUNDATIONS OF INEQUITIES
- CULTURALLY RESPONSIVE PRACTICES
- IMPlicit AND EXPLICIT BIAS
- POLICY DECISION MAKING

Participants will use newly acquired perspective to engage their communities to identify local challenges and work toward solutions that help communities better serve children and families. You are encouraged to attend both days. Participation is free but registration is required. For questions, please contact Lisette.Levy@oel.myflorida.com.

ABOUT KHATIB A.F. WAHEED

In June 2011, Khatib A.F. Waheed initiated Racial Equity Learning Exchange (RELE) Sessions™ nationally as a consultant, trainer, and facilitator to support various judicial circuits, criminal justice systems, child welfare jurisdictions, law enforcement, mental health agencies, state agencies, and large organizations across the country who work to improve services and outcomes for children and families of color involved with juvenile justice and the welfare systems. Prior to his national work as a Presenter/Facilitator of RELE, Waheed served as a Senior Fellow for the Center for the Study of Social Policy in Washington, DC from 2003 to 2011. When he is not doing RELE Sessions, Waheed is working on a daily basis to achieve racial equity through some specific systemic reform and community building efforts.
